Think Like an Engineer, Speak Like a Leader – The Ins and Outs of High-Performance Engineering Leadership

Presented by keynote speaker Andrei G. Jablokow, PhD

Engineering management done correctly balances the needs of technical requirements, growing people, and keeping an eye on the business. As an engineer, technical lead, engineering manager, or engineering executive, your ability to build trust and influence is key to your success and the success of the people you lead. Whether it's a functional team, a team of managers, or a project team, people get more done when they work together effectively and harmoniously. That's not as easy as it sounds. Almost all engineering leaders struggle with what role they play at some point or another.

On the other hand, successful engineering leaders deliver results, carry out difficult tasks, and make better decisions. This program will show you how to leverage your ability to think as an engineer in the context of performance leadership and help you move to the next level, no matter where you are right now.
